

Let's Party

A great celebration is not the same for everyone. By sharing what your ideal party would be like, you can also reveal a little about yourself.

Instructions: As you go down the list in planning your ideal party or celebration, choose only one of the two options. No, you can not choose both. When finished, share your selections with the other members of your group.

My Party Plans

For Music:

- Lively Christian worship songs so everyone can praise God and sing along
- Good mixture of Rock, Rap, R&B and loud beats to get everyone on their feet

For Food:

- Hot dogs, hamburgers, snacks, chips and all the condiments you could want
- Hors d'oeuvres and other culinary delights catered and cooked to perfection

For Dessert:

- Sweet pleasures, pie, cake, chocolates, enough for all to heap on the pounds
- Ice cream cones in assorted flavors, simple yet so satisfying

For Beverages:

- Cans of every type a soft drink imaginable, so no one will be disappointed
- Lots of ice on hand, and let everyone bring their favorite refreshments

For Tableware:

- The best china and crystal in the house, along with impressive shiny silverware
- Plastic knives, forks, spoons and cups, for no-worry no-cleanup fun

For Guests:

- Close friends, so we can all "let our hair down" and have a great time
- Anyone can come, especially people I don't know, the more the merrier

For Location:

- The backyard, for an intimate, familiar setting without any hassles
- Fancy clubhouse or party room, to provide something different and exciting

Additional Discussion Questions:

What is your favorite celebration? New Years, your birthday, etc.?
What makes a celebration really great? (food, music, friends, etc.)
