

Proverbs – Lesson 3 Workbook

Purity

Proverbs 5:1-23, 7:1-27

1. To whom are each of these chapters addressed?

2. What does the author urge his son to do?

3. If the son listens, what is promised?

4. The warning in each of these chapters is against what??

5. Do you think this is a literal woman or something else?

6. What are some ways that impurity confronts the son?

7. Despite how tempting and harmless it may seem, what is the result of impurity, according to these Proverbs?

8. These Proverbs end in much the same way they began. How is that?

Proverbs 2:9-11, 16

1. Verse 9 starts with "then." Can you identify earlier in chapter 2 what it is we must do to "understand what is right and just?"

2. According to this passage, is wisdom just in our minds?

3. What are the benefits of wisdom/discretion?

4. What additional benefit does wisdom bring, according to verse 16?

Psalms 119:9-11

1. What is the question posed at the beginning of this passage?

2. What is the answer to that question?

3. The psalmist states his commitment in this verse by saying what?

4. How does he manage to do this?

Homework

- Memorize Psalm 119:9-11
- Listen to God's Words, store them in your heart and apply them to everything you do.